HEAVY SPANISH LOSS.

Thirty-nine Bodies Already Found and Buried.

CHAFFEE NOW OCCUPIES SEVILLA.

Heroic Work of the Rough Riders-Burial of the Dead Americans—Our Army Now In Camp Within Four Miles of the Enemy.

JURAGUA, Cuba, June 25, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 27.—The initial fight of Colonel Wood's Rough Riders and the troopers of the First and Tenth regular cavalry will be known in history as the battle of La Quasina. That it did not end in a perfect slaughter of Americans was not due to any miscalculation in the plan of the Spaniards, for as perfect ambuscade as was ever formed in the brain of an Apache Indian was prepared, and Lieutenant Colonel Roose-velt and his men walked squarely into it. For 11/4 hours they held their ground under a perfect storm of bullets from the front and sides, and then Colonel Wood to the right and Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt to the left led a charge which turned the tide of battle and sent the enemy flying over the hills toward Santiago.

It is now definitely known that 16 men on the American side were killed, while 60 were wounded, or are reported to be missing. It is impossible to calculate the Spanish losses, but it is known that they were far heavier than those of the Americans, at least as regards actual loss of life. Already 37 dead Spanish soldiers have been found and buried, while many others are undoubtedly lying in the thick underbrush on the side of the gully and on the slope of the hill where the main body of the enemy was located. The wounded were all removed.

That the Spaniards were thoroughly posted as to the route to be taken by the Americans in their movement toward Sevilla was evident, as shown by the careful preparations they had made. The main body of the Spaniards was posted on a hill, on the heavily wooded slopes of which had been erected two blockhouses flanked by irregular intrenchments of stone and fallen trees. At the bottom of these hills run two roads, along which Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt's men and eight troops of the First and Tenth cavalry, with a battery of four howitzers, advanced. These roads are but little more than gullies, rough and narrow, and at places almost impassable. In these trails the fight occurred. Nearly half a mile separated Roosevelt's men from the regulars, and between them and on both sides of the road in the thick underbrush was concealed a force of Spaniards that must have been large, judging from the terrific and constant fire they poured in on the Americans.

The fight was opened by the First and Tenth cavalry under General Young. A force of Spaniards was known to be in the vicinity of La Quasina, and early in the morning Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt's men started off up the precipitous bluff back of Siboney to attack the Spaniards on their right flank, General Young at the same time taking the road at the foot of the hill. About 21/2 miles out from Siboney some Cubans, breathless and excited, rushed into camp with the announcement that the Spaniards were but a little way in front and were strongly intrenched. Quickly the Hotchkiss guns out in the front were brought to the rear, while a strong scouting line was thrown out. Then cautiously and in silence the troops moved forward until a bend in the road disclosed a hill where the Spaniards were located. The guns were again brought to the front and placed in position, while the men crouched down in the road, waiting impatiently to give Roosevelt's men, who were toiling over the little trail along the crest of the ridge, time to get up.
At 7:30 a. m. General Young gave the command to the men at the Hotchkiss guns to open fire. That command was the signal for a fight that for stubbornness has seldom been equaled. The instant the Hotchkiss guns were fired from the hillside commanding the road came voiley after volley from the Mausers of the Spaniards.

Don't shoot until you see something to shoot at!" yelled General Young, and the men, with set jaws and gleaming eyes, obeyed the order. Crawling along the edge of the road and protecting themselves as much as possible from the fearful fire of the Spaniards, the troopers, some of them stripped to the waist, watched the base of the hill, and when any part of a Spaniard became visible they fired.

Cotonel Wood's men, with an advance guardout in front and two Cuban guides before them, but apparently with no flankers, went squarely into the trap set for them by the Spaniards, and only the unfaltering courage of the men in the face of a fire that would even make a veteran quail prevented what might left Santiago this morning (Saturday). easily have been a disaster. As it was, Troop L, the advance guard under the sens are very short of food. The soiunfortunate Captain Capron, was aled or wounded. "There must have been nearly 1,500 Spaniards in front and to the sides of us," said Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt today when discussing the fight. "They held the ridges with rifle pits and machine guns and hid a body of men in ambush in the thick jungle at the sides of the road over which we were advancing. Our advance guard struck the men in ambush and drove them out. But they lost Captain Capcon, Lieutenant Thomas and about 11 nen killed or wounded.

"The Spanish firing was accurate so accurate indeed that it surprised me, and their firing was fearfully heavy." "I want to say a word for our own men," continued Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt. "Every officer and man did his duty up to the handle. Not a man

In the two hours' fighting, during which the volunteers battled against their concealed enemy, enough deeds of heroism were done to fill a volume. One of the men of Troop E, desperately wounded, was lying squarely between the lines of fire. Surgeon Church hurried to his side and, with bullets pelting all around him, calmiy dressed the man's wound, bandaged it and walked unconcernedly back, soon returning with two men and a litter. The wounded man was placed on the litter and brought into our lines. Another soldier of Troop

behind a tree, gave up his place to a wounded companion, and a moment or two later was himself wounded. Sergeant Bell stood by the side of Captain Capron when the latter was mortally hit. He had seen that he was fighting against terrible odds, but he never flinched. "Give me your gun a minute," he said to the sergeant, and kneeling down he deliberately aimed and fired two shots in quick succession. At each fire a Spaniard was seen to fall. Bell, in the meantime, had seized a dead comrade's gun and knelt beside his captain and fired steadily. When Captain Capron fell, he gave the sergeant parting messages to his wife and father and bade the sergeant goodby in a cheerful voice, and was then borne away dying.

Sergeant Hamilton Fish, Jr., was the first man killed by the Spanish fire. He was near the head of the column as it turned from the wood road into range of the Spanish ambuscade. He shot one Spaniard who was firing from the cover of a dense patch of underbrush. When a bullet struck his breast, he sank at the foot of a tree with his back against it. Capron stood over him shooting. and others rallied around him, covering the wounded one. The ground this afternoen was thick with empty shells where Fish lay. He lived 20 minutes. He gave a small lady's hunting case watch from his belt to a messmate as a last souvenir.

With the exception of Captain Capron all the Rough Riders killed in yesterday's fight were buried this morning on the field of action.

Captain Capron's body was brought into Juragua this afternoon, but it was deemed inadvisable to send the remains north at this season, and the interment took place on a hillside near the seashore, back of the provisional hospital.

ONLY FOUR MILES APART.

Spanish and American Armies Camp Within Sight of Each Other.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 27 .-Troops of the United States and of Spain are almost face to face and less than four miles apart. Last night the picket lines at certain points were within hailing distance of the enemy. It seems certain that the battle of Santiago must come within a week.

The troops were all ashore last night at Juragua and Baiquiri, with the exception of a few companies that have gone forward. The supplies are sufficient to enable the army to sustain a week's campaign at both handing points.

There is a continual procession of small boats riding on to the beach through the pounding surf, and, as one week's rations are already landed, it is believed the required supplies will all be ashore by Tuesday.

The landing of troops, horses and supplies has been extraordinary. With only one steam barge and compelled to depend on treacherous small boats General Shafter has landed over 16,000 men, hundreds of horses and mules and thousands of dollars' worth of supplies on the exposed beaches, and only two men have lost their lives. No more than 50 animals have been drowned and scarcely a package of supplies has been

General Wheeler, in his official report, places the number of dead in the engagement at Sevilla as 22 and the wounded as between 70 and 80. No attempt has yet been made to prepare an | official list with the names of the dead and wounded. The high grass and bushes of the battle ground make it difficult to find the bodies, but an official list will probably be prepared tomor-

The bodies of 39 Spaniards have been found, and the Spanish loss in killed and wounded was doubtless much heavier than the American.

The majority of the American troops are now here or at the front in the vicinity of Sevilla. The force at the latter place, which is about nine miles from Santiago, numbers 6,000 Americans and 1,500 Cubans. General Wheeler is in command there, with Generals Young, Lawton and Chaffee. General Wheeler will remain at Sevilla, which will be made a rendezvous for the troops landing at Baiquiri and at this point. The artiliery and cavalry are being put for-ward from Baiquiri. The cavalry has heen sent ahead to cut a wagon road through the underbrush.

From the American position at Sevilla Santiago is plainly visible and the fortifications can be seen. The reports to General Shafter from the generals at the front show the conditions. General Wheeler's report says:

"I have just seen two negro boys who They report that the soldiers and citidiers and officers have seized all the food in the shops. They are killing most surrounded, and but for the re-en-food in the shops. They are killing forcements hurriedly sent forward ev-young horses for food and in the hospitals are subsisting on bread made of rice flour.

"Three Spanish generals took part inthe fight at Sevilla yesterday. Five wagon loads of wounded were carried into Santiago, and many others wounded got there on horses or afoot. Wecan see Morro castle and the flag very distinctly from our positions. The Cubans confirm the reports as to the fine character of the fortifications aroundthe city. Seven lines of barbed wire are stretched around the trenches. The Spaniards have recently dug deep necting a series of small forts." Saturday afternoon General Young sent in the following report:

trenches around the entire city, con-

These hills now appear deserted. The country is fairly open, and it will not, be difficult to move troops over it. General Chaffee occupies Sevilla today."

Two thousand Cubans were trans-ported yesterday from Acceraderos to Altares. They were taken offshore in pontoons under the supervision of Gen-; eral Ludlow of the engineers. They belonged to General Calixto Garcia's force, and transporting them by water from. the west to the east side of Santiago saved several days. It also saves unnecessary fighting.

The Cubans will join the army's van. All the convoy ships except the battle-ship Indiana, which is off the harbor, are coaling at Guantanamo.

VESUVIUS PASSES MERRIMAC. Dynamite Cruiser Explores the Harbert of Santiago.

OFF SANTIAGO, Cuba, June 27.-It has remained for the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius to demonstrate that the entrance to Santiago harbor was not completely blocked by the sinking of the While poking her nose about the entrance to the harbor a few nights agothe Vesuvius discovered ample room in which to pass the wreck of the Merrimac. She went in, made observations along the inner harbor and then cameback to sea, getting around the wrecked collier without difficulty.

As the collier now lies, it is said, the channel is comparatively free from obstruction. Such is the opinion of meny on the Vesuvius, and their opinion is. based on experience. Not only did the dynamite cruiser pass the wreck while reconnoitering about the outer forts the other night, but it gave to Admiral Sampson news which resulted in a closer examination of the wreck as it now lies.

It has been ascertained that two battleships can enter the harbor abreast, one passing to the right and the other to the left of the Merrimac wreck. This is an opportunity that will be of great advantage to Admiral Sampson when the final attack on Santiago begins. Lieutenant Hobson and his men still are in communication with the fleet. There is little prospect that be exchanged before the attack on Santiago is made. LEAVING THE PATROL.

Troops of Third Manila Expedition Embark.

THEY MAY SAIL THIS AFTERNOON.

an Francisco Turns Out to Bid the Soldiers Goodby-Merritt and the Astor Battery Will Leave For the Front on Wednesday,

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27 .- Four thousand men, comprising the third expedition to the Philippines, embarked early yesterday afternoon, and soldiers now swarm in the holds and upon the decks of the steamers Ohio, Indiana, City of Para and Morgan City. Today the steamer Valencia will receive her complement of the militia, and these five transports, bearing the bulk of the expeditionary force, probably will sail this afternoon, to be followed on Wednesday by the steamer Newport, upon which General Merritt is expected to

Shortly after 11 o'clock the sounding of bugles announced that the time for parting had come and the soldiers must form for the march to the water front, where the transports awaited them,

Along the entire extent of the five mile march an escort of police was obliged to force back the throngs of people to make a narrow lane for the progress of the departing companies. The soldiers were cheered at every step, goodbys and good wishes were momentarily shouted, hand flags were waved, flowers were thrown and everywhere emotion was visible as when the first California regiment of San Francisco boys marched away.

When the triumphal march ended the soldiers were taken on board their respective transports. They were given a tremendous ovation by thousands of citizens who swarmed on and around the wharfs. It was an emotional as well as a physical relief when the embarkation was an accomplished fact. The assignment of troops to the various transports was as follows: Steamer Morgan City-The First Idaho volunteers and the First Nebraska recruits.

Steamer City of Para-The Thirteenth Minnesota.

Steamer Indiana-One battalion of the Eighteenth United States infantry, one battalion of the Twenty-third United States infantry, the signal corps and a detachment of engineers.

Steamer Ohio-First Wvoming volunteers, Batteries G and M, Third artillery, and recruits of the Thirteenth Minnesota.

The steamer Valencia, which has been taking on coal at the Union works, will be ready today for its assignment of troops-the First North Dakota volun-

The Newport on Wednesday will take on Batteries H and K, Third artillery; the Astor independent battery and General Merritt and his staff. This steamer is at the Pacific Mail dock.

Food Scarce at Iloilo.

HONGKONG, June 27.-The British steamer Sun-Klang, from Hollo June 22, reports that quiet repvails there and that no rebels are known to be in the vicinity. Two thousand Spanish and native troops hold the place and are erecting earthworks, but they are without artillery. The Spanish residents discredit the report of the capture of Cavite and declare that the Americans are exterminated by this time.

The governor of Hollo, it is reported. has forbidden foreigners to mention any news regarding the war. All the firms in Iloilo are shipping sugar hastily so as to get it off before the Americans arrive. Food is scarce and commands high prices.

The American cruiser Charleston and the transports bound for Manila have not been sighted.

MADRID PRESS DESPONDENT. Says the Powers Have Abandoned Spain to Her Fate.

MADRID, June 27 .- The cabinet held a long session yesterday for the purpose of devising national defenses, Senor Sagasta, the premier, endeavoring to persuade his colleagues to defer the consideration of domestic questions. Changes in the ministry were dis-

Already work has been begun in reconditioning the coast forts and augmenting the submarine defenses.

The tone of the newspaper press is despondent, and many journals bemoan the fact that the powers have abandoned Spain while she is defending their cause. They say that France, having received commercial concessions from Washington, remains indifferent, while Germany keeps in the background and Russia uses Spain as a cat's paw in her diplomacy. Spain must in no case, the papers declare, accept the intervention of Europe. It would be better to treat directly with the enemy. The threat of the American government to attack the Spanish coast has had no effect. A third squadron is pre-paring for the defense of the coast.

A member of the cabinet, in an interview vesterday said: "Let them come, We will receive them as they deserve," As matters grow worse in the Philippines and Cuba for the Spaniards the spirit of peace, which the government already holds so strongly, generalizes itself. The most serious concern is relative to the movements of the Carlists, who are known to have much money

As long as Sagasta, remains at the head of the government the Carlists have small chance. Their bitter enemy knows their hand as well as themselves. He does not fear them.

Weyler, universally accepted as the head of the Carlists, is minutely watched. It is said that means will be taken to keep the much talked of general at

"If Admiral Camara coals at Port Said he will not, under the neutrality laws, be allowed to enter the Suez canal. It is supposed if he traverses the canal that he will endeavor to obtain coal at Obook, on the gulf of Aden,"

In any event the matter is regarded as of importance, since it is recognized that he can do nothing to interfere with the American operations or retard the fall of Manila.

The Times expresses surprise that the United States has not already sent a flying squadron to the Spanish coast, and it declares that the establishment of a Philippine republic under American protection is "impossible," the mixed races there being quite incapable of self government.

Sunday Baseball Game Stopped.

CLEVELAND, June 27.-The game to have been played between Cleveland and New York at Euclid Beach park yesterday afternoon was prevented by officials of Collinwood village. The players were notified that they would be arrested as soon as the first ball was pitched, and the game was therefore abandoned. Fourthousand persons were outside the gates, but were not admitted to the grounds. The postponed game will be played on Tuesday.

Clifton House at Nisgara Burned,

NIAGARA FALLS, June 27.—The Clifton House, a famous old hotel which has sheltered more notable guests than any other house at Niagara, was burned last night. The fire is thought to have originated in a spark from the kitchen chimney. The firemen from this side of the river alded the Canadians in battling with the flames. Some of the office furniture was saved, but in a damaged condition. The loss is estimated at $100,000. The house was well insured and belonged to the Bush estate. George M. Colburn has been proprietor for nearly 30 years. It was built in 1835. The site was on the Canadian side, right in front of the American fall. The first guest of note entertained in the house was Jenny Lind.

The Hope Follows Peary.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 27.-Lieutenant Peary's auxiliary steamer Hope, Captain Samuel Bartlett, sailed yesterday for Sydney, C. B., where she will coal and take on board a scientific party, proceeding thence to North Baffin's bay, where she will join Lieutenant Peary to transfer stores and coal to the steamer Windward. The Hope's reserve stock of 100 tons of coal will be landed at Littleton island, off the coast of Greenland, to be used by the Windward on her return, provided she is frozen in at the north all winter. The Hope is expected to return here in the latter Colonel Torrey's Rough Riders Caught In a Collision.

FOUR KILLED AND MANY INJURED.

One of the Wounded Cannot Live-First Section of the Train Run Into by the Second-Soldiers Threaten to Lynch the Engineer.

TUPELO, Miss., June 27 .- A railway accident occurred at 3:40 yesterday afternoon in which four soldiers lost their lives and others received fatal injuries. Everything possible was done to relieve the wounded by the local physicians and citizens, who were soon upon the scene. This afternoon Colonel Torrey's regiment of Rough Riders from Cheyenne, Wy., reached this city via the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham railroad. The first section had stopped to take water and had whistled to start on, when the second section rounded a sharp curve in the track just before the town is reached and dashed into it. In the rear of the first section was the sleeper "Seville," containing Colonel Torrey and his regimental staff. This car was completely demolished, yet, strange to say, every inmate escaped unscathed except the colonel, who is injured though not seriously.

The chief fatalities occurred in a coach in the center of the first section, which orders. Lloyd's agent telegraphs that carried Troop C from Laramie, Wy. This coach was completely telescoped and the soldiers within were jammed and brulsed beneath the masses of timbers, broken car seats and other debris. In the second section one baggage car was thrown into the ditch, but in this train few were hurt and none dangerously. Action on the part of the soldiers was immediate to save their imperiled comrades, and with axes and ropes and buckets of water they worked like demons tearing away the wreckage to get at the wounded and dead and quench the fire which had started in the sleeper "Seville," which was a mass of broken wreckage, covering a steaming, hissing engine. The wounded were removed to a vacant building in the town.

The sections contained Troops A, C, E, L, G and M, forming part of a regiment being transported to Jacksonville. It is the Second United States volunteer cavalry and was raised by Colonei Torrey, its commander, in the Rocky mountain region, including the states of Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho, Nevada and Utah. Those soldiers killed and mortally injured are from the first named state. The regiment had the misfortune to meet with a wreck in the yards at St. Joseph, Mo., Friday, in which two of the train crew were killed, and at St. Louis Saturday one of the soldiers was accidentally killed by being suffocated and falling from the train in the long tunnel at that place. The fault of yesterday's accident probably lies with the engineer of the second section, who was running too fast and near the first section. The name of the engineer is Rawls, and he has disappeared. The soldiers have threatened to lynch him if found.

Not a horse was injured, though some of the stock cars were badly smashed. The following is a list of the killed and injured:

Killed-Willie B. Wallace, Troop A; Sam Johnson, Troop C; Cornelius Lenihan, Troop C, and - Gordan, colored

Fatally Injured-Henry S. Mapes, Troop C, both legs cut off; internal in-Injured-R. D. Staley, Troop M, elbow dislocated; E. Perkins, Troop L, both hips jammed; Wallace Hodge, Troop G. ankle broken; George Gardner, Troop C, hip hurt; Rudolph Widemar, officers' mess cook, back strained; Hiram F. Davis, Troop C, ankle sprained; Henry Steltz, Troop C, leg broken; Will Grovenor, Troop C, leg bruised; Joseph Aaron, Troop C, back sprained; W. H. Robbins, Troop A, ankle dislocated; Arthur Evans, Troop E, hip dislocated; Joseph Wilkinson, Troop L, slightly injured; - Schenck, Troop C, leg badly bruised.

Colonel Torrey was in the stateroom of the sleeping car, which was separated from the engine of the second section by a short caboose. The force of the impact carried the first section forward 300 yards. When the train stopped, Colonel Torrey found himself outside beneath the wreckage, and, although his feet were badly bruised, he managed to clamber up the embankment. His other injuries are several bruises about the Tompkins' New Dry GoodsStore, 35 North St.

For sale in Middlesown, N. Y., py

Geography is the study of the period. War makes strategy familiar Tompkins' New Dry Goods Store in its new location, 35 North street, is the most central, the finest and largest dry goods store in this city. Thus Tompkins' is the strategic point. That fact is quite familiar to some thousands of people in Middletown and vicinity.

The POINT is valueless without the power. Three elements make the power.

First GOODS, second PRICES, third PUBLICITY.

THE GOODS-There is no war scare here. New goods are coming in daily, lots of them, and they go out as fast as they come in. Our city buyer is on the lookout every day for new bargains for Tompkins' Big Store.

THE PRICES-Will this business be here prosperous five years from now? That largely depends on the bargains we give you now. Our business life is vitalized by the advantages we are

THE PUBLICITY-True news of good goods, at right prices make the Tompkins column good reading every week. Once again this week will each department arise in its bargain might and prove its bargain power. Once again will the multitude heartily respond to the unstinted bargain richness. Once again will small prices become great by bringing in enormous returns. This week is bargain week par excellence at Tompkins'-the popular shopping point of Middletown.

THEORY OF SURSTROLE.

Sa Infectious Disesse—is Not Due to Most or to Haberto to the Sun.

Dr. Sambon adopts what to many will be a startling theory to explain the action of sunstroke, says the Los Angeles Times. He regards this affection as not due to excessive heat or exposure to the sun, but to an infectious disease caused by a specific organism. He attests the fact that strokers, oven cleaners, miners and iron workers are exposed to temperatures higher than those of any known climate without ever contracting the malady, and that the Assam tea planters and the closely shaven Chinese, although constantly working in the hottest sun, are equally exempt. (.

Dr. Sambon, discussing the geograph ical distribution of the disease, goes on to prove that the areas in which it is epidemic are strictly defined. While unknown in Europe, it is common in the low-lying regions of the eastern United States between the Appalachians and the Atlantic. It extends along the Nile sea, the Red sea and the Persian gulf. It prevails in the Indo-Gangetic alluvial plain, but not on the adjacent Indian highlands. In support of his infection theory Dr. Sambon refers to the occurrence of epidemics which have frequently decimated hospital wards and not affected men exposed to greater heat and sun. The demonstration of the organic origin of the malady rests on its distribution etiology, morbid anatomy and epidemic character. The specific organism has not been detected, but Dr. Sambon's investigations incline him to the belief that it lives in the superficial layers of the soil, and is conveyed to the lungs or all mentary canal by dust.

GOLF AND ITS ETIQUETTE.

There Are Many Little Actions Comsidered Bad Form When Playing the Game.

As in cycling, so in golf, is etiquette most important. The observance of it does much to make or mar not only the pleasure but the success of the game. The woman contemplating joining a golf club has not only to master the 54 rules of the game, but she has its etiquette to learn and to put into practice. If she aims to be a popular member of her club she will do well to remember: That it is better to be seen and not heard on the golf links when a game is in progress, good driving requiring absolute concentration of mind. That a woman who chatters incessantly, and is especially communicative just when a critical drive is about to be made is not the most desirable of partners. That standing so that a shadow falls upon your partner's ball is not only imcollic but detrimental to the success of your partner's play. That standing on the putting-green, after you have "noled out," whether it is to gaze at the scenery or write down your score, will exasperate the best friend on carth, if he or she happens to be playing behind you. That to play first, and to shout "fore" afterward is apt to add insult to injury; "fore" is called as a warning that a "drive" is about to be made, it is not an expression of consolation after one has been hit.

WHERE TWILIGHT LASTS LONG

Skaguay Now Has Barely Five Hours of Darkness Out of Twenty-Four.

"Now is a good time for people who love long hours of daylight to sojourn for awhile at Skaguay," said R. L. Lyle, of Seattle, to a Washington Post man.

"It doesn't begin to grow dark up there till 9:30 in the evening, and dawn comes about 2:30 a. m. Five hours of darkness and 19 hours of light make a rather queer day to folks who are used to a more equal division of the two. To see people up and working at an hour when citizens in the states are peacefully snoring the hours away struck me as a very novel sight. I don't mean to say that everybody gets up early in Skaguay. In fact, I suppose that on the average people there sleep just as many hours as they do anywhere else.

"It is a hustling little town, and every man in it believes it is going to be the metropolis of Alaska. They will tell you that when they get a railroad built into the interior of the country Skaguay will be to the territory what New York is to the east and San Francisco is to the Pacific coast. They have a daily paper, a steam-heated theater, a brewery, and nearly all other conveniences of modern

WANTED TO 'NLIST.

Didn't Care Whether It Was in the Cavalry or 'Nfantry, But Wanted to Wear "Yaller Stripes."

A company of officers were seated in the tent of Capt. Craig, the provost marshal general of Camp Thomas, when four dilapidated colored youths presented themselves. Their make-up would have been their fortune in a variety theater. Suppressing a disposition to laugh, the captain gravely asked what he could do for them. A conversation elicited the information that Jim had come to " 'nlist."

"All right," laughed the captain. 'I'm not a recruiting officer, but may be I can help you. Do you want to go into the infantry or the cavalry?"

Jim scratched his head. "I doan know jess what you mean, sah," he finally answered. "Why, do you want to march on foot or ride a horse?" explained the cap-

"Well, it's jess dis way," explained Jim. "I doan know nothin' bout dis yere cavalry or dis yere 'nfantry, but I wants to go with the soldiers what wears de yaller stripes down dere legs."

ICR CREAM CENTURIES AGO.

The Delicious Summer Confection Piret Manufactured in Italy-How It Originated.

Early June days generally see the ice cream and soda parlors doing a steadily increasing business. Ice cream is a much older sweetmeat than many persons suppose. In the beginning of the seventeenth century goblets made of ice and also iced fruit-that is, fruit frozen ever - were first brought to table. The limonadiers, or lemonade sellers, of Paris, endeavored to increase the popularity of their wares by icing them, and one, more enterprising than the rest, an Italian named Procope Couteaux, in the year 1660, conceived the idea of converting such beverages entirely into ice, and about 20 years later iced liquors-that is, liquors changed into ice-were the principal things sold by the limonadiers. By the end of that century iced liquors were quite common in Paris.

Ice cream, or iced "butter," as it was first called, from its supposed resemblance to that substance, soon followed. It was first known in Paris in 1774. Duc de Chartres often went at that time to the Paris coffee-houses to drink a glass of iced liquor, and the landlord having one day presented him with his "arms" formed in edible ice, this kind of sweetmeat became the fashion. German cooks at once took up the new art. It was not long in reaching England, for in 1776 a French cook resident in Loudon, named Clermont, wrote "The Modern Cook," in which sweet ices were first described for the instruction of English cooks. The ice cream of these days is an enormously elaborated sweetmeat compared with that of the olden time.

MAKING MONEY.

Unusual Chances in War Time, But Plenty of Opportunities All the Time.

"In war time," said a man of mature years, "there are always unusual chances that are taken advantage of by men of foresight to make money. This reminds me of what Josh Dillings said, that 'if our fores ght was as good as our hindsight we'd all be rich,' or words to that effect. "At the outpreak of the civil war in this country there were long-headed men who stored away manufactured cotton goods, bleached and unbleached ections, sheetings, and so on. As the war went on, what with the curtailment of production and the blockade of southern ports, the price of cotton soared skyward and manufactured cotton goods increased in value correspondingly. Most men peddled out their holdings as the price rose, but some held on and got for their goods s'x or eight times what they paid for

"There has been no such money as that made in this war yet, and I don't suppose there's likely to be, but it would be easy to pick out things that have risen greatly in value and that a man might easily have made a forture on if Le'd known what was going to : .ppen. Suppose he'd have brought all the bunting there was, for instance, or taken a fall out of sulphur, or put away a few safe. Sold by J. E. Mills, druggists hundred cases of Spanish olives. He'd Middletown, N. Y. have found money in all these things and in various others. But then a man can find money in time of peace, too, if he knows how to look."

AMERICANS IN PARIS.

The Men Have Neither the Inclination Nor Opportunity for Long. Visits.

A recent article in Le Figaro, of Paris, is devoted to the American colony in that city. It says that the colony has always played the important and brilliant role in society chiefly because most of the Americans were "Americaines." "It is certain," continues Le Figaro, "that out of ten 'Americaines' residing in Paris there is but one American. Affairs-'business,' as they say over there-absorbs the sterner sex in the United States. In that country the men have neither the inclination nor the opportunity for much leisure, and only pay us very short visits.

"While their wives install themselves here the 'good' husband only makes flying visits, and is very seldom referred to in the elegant salons of the wives." The writer continues: "I was at an official ball not long ago, where one of them was the hero of a curious 'histoire. He wrote on the lapel of his coat a brilliant star, which struck me as original and somewhat curious in form. Although very artistic, the order was unknown to me. Some indiscreet person interrogated the Yankee as to what order it was. The Yankee replied, in a phlegmatic tone: 'It is my own compo-

Troubles from a Lucky Grave Site. When the former minister of law, Cho Pyeng-sik, was governor of Chungehong province he was told by a geomancer that the site of one O Hen-keun's house was the luckiest spot for a grave. Gov. Cho asked O to give him that site, but the latter refused. Then the governor changed his uncties from diplomacy to force. He issued a proclamation charging O with being the most undutiful son in the province, and his whole family as immoral. The law requires the governor to exterminate such criminals from the face of the earth, and he (Cho Pyeng-sik) dispatched a company of the governor's bodyguard to the town where the O family lived, destroying every house in the village, and killing eight persons and injuring six. After thus exterminating the O's the governor appropriated the site of their house and built a vault on it for his future grave. The court has now restored the property to the lawful heirs and made Mr. Che pay us indemnity of $10,000 for the

Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by Middletown people. Read what a citizen says:

T. P. Cronin, of No. 201 West Main street, furnishes an example of this. He says:- "Some years ago I had La Grippe and when I recovered from it I found it had left my back in a very bad condition. It soon developed into a severe kidney and urinary trouble, which caused the most terrible backache and greatirregulari pof the kidney secretions. They had a thick cloudy appearance, were very dark in color, precipitated a heavy deposit and were so frequent that I had to get up quite often during the night. If I did any extra bard work or caught cold the pain was alway more severe and the urinary trouble more annoying. I took numberless remedies for my complaint but failed to find anything to cure me until I obtained Doan's Kidney Pills at J. E. Mills' drug etore. They acted in my case about thesame as they did in all others whose published statements I have been reading about. I endorse all that is claimed for Doan's Kidney Pills."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box. Sent by mail on receipt of price. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

The news that Camara's fleet is at Port Said has done away with all neceszity of maintaining a coast patrol, and the ships which have been doing that duty have all been ordered to Key West, from which port they will be sent to reinforce the fleet in West Indian waters. They certainly are needed there if the blockade of Havana is to be made effec-

The Newburgh Telegram asserts with apparent gravity that Platt will not allow Ben Odell to be nominated for Governor because he is "jealous of him and has no use for him." Whether the Telegram is trying to swell Ben's head or is making game of him is one of the things that is not apparent at this distance, but all the same the conceit that the big boss is jealous of the little boss is delightfully absurd.

The Pougkeepsie Eagle, voicing the dissatisfaction of Republicans in that city, is howling because the man they had recommended for deputy collector of internal revenue was turned down by Ben Odell and the place given to a Newburgh man of his selection, H. B. Lawson. Poughkeepsie Republicans think they are every bit as important factors in the affairs of the party as the chairman of the Repullican State Committee and they don't take kindly to his cutting the ground from beneath their feet and robbing them of patronage on which they had fixed covetous eyes.

If Camara's fleet is really bound for the Philippines and if it succeeds in reaching its destination, it by no means follows that it will attempt to drive Admiral Dewey from Manila Bay. On the contrary, it is far more likely to make for some other harbor among the islands and to devote its best energies to keeping out of range of Dewey's guns. Port Said advices are to the effect that the fleet is in anything but good (oudition, and it is easily possible that Camara feels no impatience at being detained at that port while the Egyptian government pothers over the question of allowing him to fill bis ship's bunkers.

James E. Brazee tried the civil service examination for superintendent of the Bureau of Grade Crossings, but did not come within ten rows of apple trees of passing. The Railroad Commissioners have, however, appointed him an "expert assistant" to the superintendent, whose appointment is credited to Central Rail. road influence. Of course Brazee had to | fenses completed between forte Rota and be taken care of. The services he rendered the Republican party when he expounded the election law as chairman of the Board of County Canvassers were not rendered without the promise of reward. but a decent regard for appearances would have shoved him into some obscure place, and avoided the shocking absurdity of parading him as an "expert" in a bureau the duties of which require technical engineering knowledge, which it is notorious he does not pos-

All the news that reaches us from Spain confirms the reports of the growth of peace sentiment there. In Valencia, the most prosperous and progressive and least ignorant province, demands for peace are openly made. Popular ignorance as to the strength and resources o_1 the United States, blind faith in Spanish invincibility, fatuous worship of the myth called "Spanish honor" and political dissensions so complicated and juvolved by side issues that it is difficult to follow their ramifications are the obstacles in the way of official action looking to the ending of the war. The peace movement will undoubtedly gain strength but it can scarcely become effective until Spanish arms have met with further disaster. The presence of an American squadren menacing Spanish sea coast cities would have a marked effect in bringing Spain to a realization of the beauty and desirableness of peace.

The committee of the Obio Senate which investigated the methods by which Hanna's election to the United States Senate was secured reported that it was brought about through bribery. The most significant thing about the investigation was the refusal of Hanna and his agents to appear and make oath that the charges specifically and definitely made against them were false. Yet the platform adopted by the Republican convention, last week, declares that the party "rejoices" in the result of the senatorial election, and "approves" of the action of those members of the legislature whose votes brought it about. It isn't often that a political party has the nerve to so on record as endorsing bribery. Ohio Republicans' morals appear to be on no higher plane than those of the Quay Republicane in Pennsylvania, and we have John Wannamaker's word for it that tive are as bad a lot as ever deagraced a rmos wealth.

NEW FLYING SQUADRON

To Be Dispatched at Once to the Spanish Coast.

CAMARA'S SQUADRON.

Reported to Be Passing Through the Suez Canal.

An Armored Equadron to Be Disputched to the spanish Coast.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Washington, June 27 .- The Navy Department has posted the following: Commodore Watson sails, to-day, in the Newark, to join Admiral Sampson when he will take under his command an armored squadron with cruisers and proceed at once to the Spanish coast.

GOING THROUGH THE SUEZ CANAL London, June 27 .- Admiral Camara's fleet is reported to be passing through the Suez Canal.

IT WILL AND IT WON'T.

Spaniards Contradictory Statements Concerning Camara's Fleet,

LONDON, June 27.-According to a special dispatch from Madrid the Spanish Minister of Marine says Admiral Camara's squadron will leave Port Said, today, for the Philippine Islands. The Minister is credited with saying he believed the squadron to be powerful enough to defeat Dewey. Hope is expressed in Madrid that Mamla may be able to resist until the arrival of Camara's fleet

Rome, June 27.-The Spanish ambassador declares that Camara's fleet will not proceed at once to Manila, but will remain at Port Said, at present, to await developments. He does not explain how the neutrality laws will allow the ships to remain there.

THIRD SPANISH SQUADRON.

May Be Ready for Sea in Five Weeks-

Erection New Portifications. Cadiz, June 27 .- It is announced that the Spanish cruisers Vittoria and Alfonso XIII have left the arsenal and that the Caraca and Isla De Luzon are ready for armament. An additional force of men has been ordered employed to hasten the completion of the armored cruiser, Princess De Asturias, the auxiliary cruiser, Meteore, is said to have received a new arament and the armored cruiser, Cardenal Cisneros, has left Ferrol. Spanish officials expressed the hope that the third Spanish squadron will be ready for sen in five weeks. New guns are being mounted and additional de-Candelaria, owing to rumors of a contemplated American invasion

RAILROAD MILEAGE OF THE WORLD The Railroad Gazette has compiled an interesting table showing the railroad mileage of the world. From this it appears that at the end of 1896 the railroad mileage of the globe measured 445.-064 miles, of which the United States bad 182.746 miles. New roads in the rest of the world appear to be growing faster than in this country. At all events our proportion of the total at the end of 1896 was only forty-one percent., whereas in 1892 the ratio was forty-three per

NO COAL FOR CAMARA'S FLEET Port Said, June 27-Admiral Camara's flotilla has been refused permission to coal here.

Carro, June 27 .- Camara asked to be allowed to buy ten thousand tons of coal for the Spanish fleet at Port Said, but the Egyptian government refused to permit his ships to coal in Egyptian waters. Pending deliberations which are likely to last a long time, the fleet intends to temain at Port Said.

WANTS THE POPE'S HELP. ROME, June 27.—The Papal Nuncio at Madrid telegraphs the Pope that the Queen Regent desires the mediation of His Holiness, when the opportune moment arrives, with the object of concluding peace with the United States.

ETHEL BARRYMORE'S ENGAGEMENT LONDON June 27 .- The Evening News announces the betrothal of Gerald Du Maurier, son of the late author of "Trilly," to Miss Ethel Barrymore, the American actross.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR SHAFTER Washington, June 27.—Unless the calculations made by officials of the War Department are wrong, the army in Caba will be reinforced, to-day, by the arrival at Baiquiri of Gen. Duffield's 1,300 men. Gen. Garrittson and 3,000 men will join the army, Thursday or Friday, and a general movement on Santiago will at once take place.

REWARDS FOR BRAVERY.

Mereism of Lieut. Mobion and Other Naval Officers to Be Suitably Recog-

Washington, June 27.—The President, to-day, will send two special messages to Congress providing for the recognition of the services of Lieutenont Hobson, Lieutenant Newcomb and the crew of revenue cutter, Hudson, which rescued the torpedo boat, Winslow at Cardenas. Capt. Hodgeson, of the dispatch boat, Hugh McCullough, and naval cadet Joseph Wright Howell.

Authority is asked the Senate to transfer Hobson from the construction corps to the line of navy and the President anneunces that with authority given he will suitably advance Hobson in the line.

The Hudson's crew is to be given a vote of thanks and medals of commenoration and Captain Hodgeson is to be suitably recognized. The President in mentioning Lieut.

Hobson cites the fact that the erew with him has already been promoted. Naval Cadet Joseph Wright Howell. who waited under Santiago Harbor bluffs under beavy fire for the return of the Merrimac crew, will be promoted to be an ensign in the navy.

GEN. SHAFTER'S ARMY.

Last Supplies Being Landed-Dispatching Rations by Pack Trains. COPYRIGHTED BY ASSOCCIATED PRESS.

Off BAIQUIRI on board A. P. dispatch boat Dauntless, Kingston, June 27 .-General Shafter expects to remove his headquarters from here to Juragua this evening.

The transports here are rapidly landing the last supplies of forage and ammunition and the last of the four batteries of artillery started, this afternoon, for Juragua by road. Ordnance officers say the road is impracticable for siege guns and that landing facilities for them are inadequate.

About 500 mules are still corralled here. The military authorities are rapidly making up pack trains to forward rations. The men ashore have five days' supplies, but supplies for ten days are needed as a precaution against a sudden move. '

ROUGH RIDERS' LIVES SACRIFICED

Chairman Mitt Thinks Officers' Conduct Needs Investigation.

Washington, June 27.—Chairman Hitt, in the War Department, discussed the battle of Juraquasita, and said if investigation shows the apparently authentic statements are only half true, some official action will naturally follow.

He said: "It seems to me Col. Wood and Lieut, Col. Roosevelt were needlessly leading men in ambush without feeling the way with scouts. It looks like a thoughtless and reckless disregard for orders. I believe men lost their lives when there was no occasion for sacrifice. Both officers and men were brave, but [orders are orders.

SAGASTA'S PLAN FOR SECURING PEACE.

London, June 27.-A special dispatch from Madrid says the present Premier. Sugasta, is planning to provoke a crisis, form a monarchical ministry, proclaim the whole peninsula in a state of siege and appeal to a friendly nation, probably France or Russia, to secure terms of WASHINGTON, June 27.—The decision of the administration to send a squadron to Spain was not made hastily.

In addition to the original purpose to bring the Spanish people to a realizing sense of the hopelessness of continuing the struggle, the departure of the Cadiz squadron for the Philippines furnishes a new object. This is to destroy the Cadiz squadron by a bold stroke and then take up the work of haraseing the Spanish at home.

There is good reason to believe the Suez Canal management will obstruct Camara's passage on the ground of interference with navigation. Thus the prospect is the Cadiz equadron will be detained indefinitely in the Mediterranean. By the use of speedy vessels as an advence guardit may be possible for Commodore Watson to reach Gibraltar before ('amara's slow squadron could get there, returning from PortSaid. Reinforced by irouclads, Watson would have the Spanish squadron bottled up in the Mediterranean.

Watson should reach Sampson by Thursday morning, and a start will be made from off Santiago as soon as the squadron can be gotten ready, which will be in a very short time. To prevent the weakening of the Havana blockade Commodore Howell has been ordered to proceed immediately to take command of the post vacated by Watson. Howell is now in command of the coast patrol fleet, and will take the entire fleet with him to reinforce the blockade. He should reach Cuban waters by the end of the

The Navy Department has posted a bulletin, showing Watson's squadron. It is designated the eastern squadron as follows: Flagship, Newark: battlesbips, Iowa and Oregon; cruisers, Yosemite, Yankee and Dixie, and colliers, Scandia, Abaranda and Alexander.

with an injured hip. Morley's back was injured and his head was cut. The accident happened at the first turn after starting, and the men in the front seat did not miss their comrades until the car had gone some distance. Word was passed to the men at the tower, and another car was slowly taken there, and the men were assisted into it and taken around the hill. Dr. A. P. Powelson examined them, and ou finding that no bones were broken the men came to this city.

George Yatto, a plumber of this city, fell out of a coaster car scon after the above accident, but escaped injury. He tried to change his seat while the car was rounding a curve, and admits that the accident was due to bis own careless-

Why a Young Newburgher Enlisted in Emmett Dickson, one of the Newburghers who enlisted in the 24th and went to Fort Hamilton, Saturday, with Capt. McIntyre, wanted to enlist in the 5th Company, of Newburgh, and being under age drove to Monticello to secure his father's consent. He made the journey as quickly as possible and was forty-eight hours without sleep, but when he got back to Newburgh found that Capt. Sheehan had all the men needed and that there was no room for him in the 5th. Then he came to Middletown. Needless to say the young man will make a good soldier.

Louis A. Burr, a young man employed as clerk by Brink & Clark, committed spicide at Midway Park, at noon, to-day, by shooting himself in the head. Grief on account of the death of his mother, Mrs. Frances E. Burr, which occurred Monday of last week, is the only motive known for the act. He was devotedly attached to his mother, who was his only near relative, except his aged and helpless grandfather, John H. Little, and was deeply affected when she passed away, and has since been despondent, refusing to be comforted.

As nearly as can be ascertained, Mr. Burr went to Midway Park about nine o'clock, this morning. He went to the restaurant, bought some cigarettes, and then strolled through the park and the clam-bake grounds adjoining. He then went to Goshen about 10 o'clock and returned to the park on the car leaving Goshen at 11:08.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Tyrell, of 273 North street, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gillen were passing through the clam bake grounds about noon when Mrs. Tyrell who was in advance of the rest of the party came running back pallid with fright, exclaiming "There's a man on the ground there bleeding to death." The men in the party went at once to the spot indicated by Mrs. Tyrell and there found the young man with a ghastly wound in his right temple. He was still breathing but was unconscious. They realized at once that they could do nothing for him, and hurrying back to the park they told of their ghartly find. Lewis Sharp, of the restaurant, Harry Hunt, who is in charge of the boats, Roy Graham, of Sand's station, and Jos. Robertson, of Scranton, who is Mr. Graham's guest, went to the soot and covered the dying man. He ceased to breathe at 1 o'clock.

Coroner Harding, of Port Jervis, was notified by telegraph and Knapp & Merritt were telephoned for and went to the park and took charge of the body. Lying by the young man's side where the body was found was the weapon from which the fatal shot had |been fired. It was a brand new revolver of 44 calibre. One of the chambers was blackened by the discharge of the cartridge which it had contained and one of the chambers bad not been loaded.

ale of the revolver had evidently been placed closely against the temple, for the flesh was blackened and burned by the powder. The wound was aghastly one, the bullet baving torn the flesh and crushed the bone in as shocking a way as a bullet from a Spanish Mauser rifle. Mr. Burr. although he has attended to his usual duties at the store since his mother's funeral, did not go there this morning. Before going to the park he went to Knapp & Merritt's and paid them their bill for his mother's tuneral expenses.

When the fatal shot was fired the muz-

At this writing it is not known whether the anfortanate young man left any letter or other memorandum giving a reason for taking his life. Mr. Burr was a member of Christ Church, and was most regular in his attendance on its service. He said, Saturday, to his pastor, Mr. Emery, that he felt that he badly needed a rest, that he was wors out by anxiety and watching bis mother during her long illness and scarcely knew what to do with his aged and helpless grandfather, who was left on his hands. Mr. Emery said, this afternoon, that it seemed to him probable that the young man's mind had given way under the nervous strain to which he had been subjected. Mr. Burr was a member of the 24th Separate Company, but his mother's illness made it impossible for him to volunteer when the company was called ont and the necessity of providing for his grandfather prevented him from taking advantage of the opportunity for enlistment offered when Capt. McIntyre recruited the men necessary to fill up the company. Mr. Burr was held in high esteem by his employers and by his associates in the store. He was a young men of high character and a loving and dutiful son and the tragic ending of a life so full of promise has saddened all who knew him.

The father of the deceased, Charles S. Burr, committed suicide in an institution in the western part of the State about twenty years ago. He was under treatment there for brain trouble, and while insane cut his throat.

The loss of blood brought him back to a realizing sense of his act and he called for help. It was too late and he died from self-inflicted wounds. Rad Sia Flagors Jamesed.

A. S. Wilson, an employe of the Middletown Ice Company, had the fingers of his left hand badly jammed, Saturday, by its being caught between the wheel of a wagon and the side of a shed, under which the wagon was being backed. The little finger may have to be amputated.

By WILLIAM BUCKLEY.

WE had been three months mar-ried, and lived in the blessed expectancy of a secretaryship which I had been promised on a commission appointed to inquire into some abuses government did not want to find out; but the preliminaries dragged, and I found myself doomed to a period of enforced idleness which did not improve my temper, and I fear tried my wife's sorely, for though happy we were human. Our first and, thank Heaven, our only tiff took place one memorable day when we were both gardening on a plot of soot-blackened ground attached to our modest dwelling. In making a border I had planted a number of carnations and picotees together, contrary to my wife's directions, and on discovering the mistake she said what I suppose nine out of ten women would have said. I answered tartly, being preoccupied with bitter thoughts, and so acrimonious did our discussion become that Edith went into the house.

After some minutes' reflection I felt the childishness of my conduct, and followed to make it up. She was not in the little attic-like boudoir at the top of our mansion, so I descended to search for her in the drawing-room, which had doors opening on the conservatory and hall. By charce I chose the first, and had almost entered the room when I heard the sound of a well-rememberel voice, and drawing the portiere aside cautiously saw my wife face to face with Arbuseula!

"I daresay you know who I am?" the latter was saying.

Edith denied the implied honor. "Then is your state the more gracious," retorted Arbuscula. "But your husband does, and that is the chief point. The servant told me he was at home." She looked just as splendid as ever, and swept our modest little apartment with a scornful glance. "My husband is engaged," said Edith. Anything you have to say may be said

"Indeed?" replied Arbuscula. "Well, have got a good many things to say." My wife folded her hands, and, findng one of her gardening gloves on. pulled it off and threw it on the table.

'Guard!" thought L. "And first," continued Arbuscula, "I want to say that your husband is the writer of those letters." And she deposited a formidable bundle on the table, beside the glove, "They were written to me-jou may read them if you choose." "I have no desire to do so," replied my wife, valuantly.

"They would interest you," the other went on. "You could compare them with those he has, I daresay, written to yourself."

"I fear you misunderstand, though the error is a natural one-for you, replied my wife considerately.

A spot of light shone in Arbuscula's eye. "They would be useful," she continued, "if you wanted to make things hot for him-as you undoubtedly will." My wife was silent; she played with her wedding-ring.

"Or, perhaps you would care to see them in the public press," the other added, viciously. "I know a literary chap who would dress 'em up well; they'd want a little draping, for a paper I know of." "I conclude, then, that the lawyers have marked 'no case?' " observed Edith, and Arbuscula glanced curiously at her. "I do not take my-wrongs to a law court!" she said, magnificently.

"In that you show your wisdom," replied my wife. Arbuscula looked at her again, with something approaching respect, but there was a sparkle beneath the evelids.

"Come, what will you give to prevent it?" she asked.

"Nothing," responded Edith, quietly. "He would be of a different opinion!"

observed Arbuscula. "Hardly," said my wife; "he is not a

I frequently had fainting and smothering spells My form was bent as a man of 80. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone " thought L "All women are the same to him," continued Arbuscula, recovering berself. What is the difference between you and me? A wedding ring.' "And all it symbolizes." rejoined my wife, softly.

"That's a house on a fifth-rate terrace, with only one stop-cock for eight of ye, and the lady next door cuts off the water when she has had a few words with you over the hedge - I know it!"

speered the other. "O, it symbolizes more," said Edith, but her tone was weaker; the thrust had gone home, for the study of hydrestatics had been forced upon us of

"And what is that, pray?" demanded Arbuscula, insolently.

"To explain would be to insult your intelligence - and yourself," replied Edith. "Beat in carte, lunge in tierce!" thought I.

"O. I'm not thin-skinned!" laughed Arbuscula.

"I made allowances," rejoined my Arbuscula's lips became a thin line of scarlet. Then they parted, and she smiled. I knew that she had always possessed a most unfeminine sense of humor, but I was not prepared for its assertion at this supreme moment. The two women stood looking at each other across the table. Arbuscula's dazzling smile lighting her face, my wife's pale, yet never so beautiful I thought, though now, enlightened by the contrast, I noted lines of anxiety which had been creeping there during the past months, and violet shadows under the sweet eyes. The other gathered up the letters and began to shuffle them as one would a pack of cards.

"You are dying to read them!" she

My wife's voice said "No;" her face was not so explicit. "Here's one-it's poetry," continued Arbuscula. "It was written for a stays I invented, the Arbuscula busk-you might have heard of it?"

"No, it must have been before my time," said Edith, innocently. "Possibly you came rather late in the day," retorted the other. "But came to stay!" answered my Arbuscula laughed. Edith put her hand upon the bell. "You, surely, will not compel me?" she said. "I have been very patient."

"You'll want all the patience you have in the good time coming," rejoined the

"And you, what will your future be without patience?" asked Edith. "My future can take care of itself," cried Arbuscula, laughing a laugh. short as the snap of a breaking sword blude. "I'm a woman with a past, the sort morality humbugs chatter about, but if I had a future like you, by G-I'd try to get something better than the butt end of a roue!" "Using the hilt." thought I.

My wife laughed givly now. "You know the old adage," she said "the best husband is a reformed rake. Man's follies often serve as beacons to guide them past the other shoal- and shallows of life. Experience enables them to appreciate things-it is a good light for a man.

"And a useless one for a woman," answered Arbusenia, with a sudden change of tore; "it's like the poop-light which shows the foam upon the reef that has just torn the poor ship's side out-much good, when the masts are going by the board!"

She gathered the letters together: whatever had been her purpose in coming, I could see her grasp upon it was gone. Catching at that moment the reflection of my own face in a mirror opposite, I was so ill pleased by the night that I stole downstairs, hearing another hacking laugh and the tinkle of a bell as I went.

I returned to the garden and commenced to patiently dig up the border. Presently Edith came out also, with an armful of plants she began to sort, singing a cradle song I much admired

I went over to her. "I got those carnations up," I said; "but, for the life of me, I can't say which is which!" She ran to the border. "Ah, you took far too much trouble, dear," she said, softly. "And after all your labor, too! I'm so sorry!" She pressed my arm, and the touch covered more than the words.

"But the line was not straight," I answered, averting my eyes.

"We'll draw a straighter one, now, you and I," she whispered. I passed my arm about her waist and kissed her. She put both her own around my neck.

"My wife!" said I. "You old goose," she whispered, biting my ear, "I saw you all the time!"-Black and White.

Sweetest Love Story in Literature.

Wherever Mrs. Browning trod, whatever she touched, became endowed with the sacredness of her presence. When Mr. Browning returned with her on a visit to England, after an absence of several years, he repaired to the little church in which they had been married. and there, at the entrance, he reverently kneeled and kissed the paving stones upon which she, the light of his being. had stepped. And in after years, when the light had gone from his life, he sought this sacred spot on the twelfth of each September, and in the dusk of the evening shadows passers-by might have seen a white-haired man kneeling for a moment as if in prayer before the doorway of the dark and silent church. Yet little would they have thought to recognize in this man the poet Browning; he whose myatical writings had led the world to regard him as a man of austere nature.—Clifford Howard, in

THE PART MATTERIAL MARK

White Interiopers Are Wresting the Continent from the Hands of the Blacks.

It is a fitting time at the end of the century to exhibit Africa, and now under the new masters. Like poor Poland, it has been fully partitioned, though, unlike Poland, not torn limb from timb. says the Independent.

What political changes the next century will bring in a continent which has interested the world for thou-ands of years cannot be foreseen; but there ino probability that a great native negro kingdom will rise. The control is likely to continue where it is now placed, in European hands. The few states that may be called native have no promise of permanence. The destiny of the two Boer republics is absorption in British South Africa. Independent Morocco and semi-independent Tripoli, on the Mediterranean, have no future of their own. Sooner or later they will go to swell the possessions of France and other European powers.
We must regard Africa, therefore, as an appanage of Europe. The white races which pushed back the natives and settled and control the American continent, from Cape Barrow to Cape Horn, dominate all the other continents, and the black tribes of Africa. as well as the brown and yellow of Asia. are subject to their rule. The greatest of the Asiatic kingdoms is in process of decay, and its partition has already begun. It seems terribly unjust for the white interlopers to wrest two continents. America and Australia, from the aboriginal men and make them their own; to take another from the Asiatic races and erect their standards over it, and, finally, to take Africa from the blacks and subject it wholly to their

INDIAN CREMATIONISTS.

Yuma Redskins That Know How to Dispose of Their Dead by Fire.

C. S. Hilton has just returned to Los Angeles from Yuma, where he has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific. During his stay in Yuma there were four deaths among the Indians on the reservation, and following their usual custom the bodies were burned. Capt. Hilton says that these Indians are "natural born" creamationists, and have the business down to such a science as to discount all expensive modern crematories in point of effectiveness, says the Arizona Republican.

Their plan, the captain says, is a very simple one, but it is thoroughly effective. When an Indian dies the whole tribe have a great pow-wow and details are told off to keep up a regular and systematic wailing up to the time the body is prepared for cremation. When this time arrives a shallow hole is scooped out in the sand, which is filled with finely splintered wood, on which the nude corpse is laid. A cord or two of mesquite wood is then piled on top and about the body, the fire is applied and the entire band of Indians gather about the burning pile.

For a few seconds there is a slight smell of burning flesh, and it is all over. The wood burns to ashes, and when it goes out there is nothing resembling a human frame left; only a comparatively small pile of gray ashes, which are scattered over the desert by the winds.

LIZARDS WHICH WALK ERECT.

Widely Separated Members of This Curious Little Family Have Same Habit.

When drawing attention about a year ago to the bipedal movements of certain Australian lizards, notably the comical little chlamydosaurus, or "frilled lizard," whose photograph is now familiar, Mr. Saville-Kent referred to an unconfirmed rumor that the Mexican iguanoid lizard also possesses the power of running on its hind legs. being led to this by the correspondence in general structure of the creatures. especially the abnormal length of the hind limbs. He publishes a letter from a gentleman living in the West Indies. which shows that there also all the lizards, from the large tree iguana, five feet long, down to the tiniest mites which scamper about among the stones, are accustomed to run erect on their hind legs when hurried, says Nature.

The correspondent adds the interesting information that on the rocks about the watershed of the Guiana are old drawings of lizards running erect. Mr. Saville-Kent points out that this peculiarity, which a year ago was doubted by many naturalists, but which has now been shown to be common, deserves attention as pointing to bipedal locomotion in some remote ancestor.

Found by Grave Diggers.

The gravediggers who were employed to dig Mr. Gladstone's grave in Westminster abbey came upon a leaden coffin of some unknown person. They also found remains of other persons of whose burial there is no record, among them a skull very much worn away, but seemingly that of a young man; shoulder bones and small bones of the arm in excellent preservation, but completely browned through age. And at a greater depth skulls were found which, like the others, were only kept free from disappearance into mold by the dryness of the soil.

Enistia's Hasband.

The only prince of the royal house of Spain who is now in active service in Cuba in the cause of his country is Don Antonio, infant of Spain. He is in the prime of life, being only just 32, and colonel of the "crack" regiment of hus-sars, "El Princesa." He is the husband of Infanta Eulalia.

OBITUARY.

Patrick Hougherty.

Patrick Dougherty died suddenly, Thursday, at his home in Otisville, of heart disease, aged seventy-three years. He is survived by six children: Katie. widow of Edward Fitzgerald; Frank E. Schooner, of High Bridge, N. Y.; Mary A. Smith, of this city; John and Henry P., of Port Jervis, and James at home.

The funeral was beld, Sunday, at his his late residence at 2 o'clock. Interment in the cemetery of the Church of the Holy

Mrs. Theodore J. Osborn.

Mrs. Maggie Johnson Osborn, wife of Theodore J. Osborn, an employe of the O. and W .shops, died early Su..day morning, at her home, 28 Wisner avenue, aged thirty-seven years.

She was a daughter of William and Mary (Hamilton) Johnson, and was born at New Hampton. Her father died in this city several years ago, and her mother is still living here. She was married to Mr. Osborn at Ridgebury, Feb. 15th, 1879, and resided in this city for seventeen years. She is survived by her husband and three children, Wilmot, Mary and Annie; also by one sister. Annie, wife of Henry Adams, of Boston. She was of a genial, pleasant disposition, and was loved by a large circle of friends.

The funeral will be held at Grace Church -at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning.

FIRE AT THE RUSSELL HOUSE. A Small but Stubborn Fire Gave Eagles and Excelsions a Hard Fight. Fire started in the kitchen of the Russell House, Saturday afternoon, at 5:30, and secured such a foothold between the walls that Engles and Excelsiors, who were summoned by a still alarm, were unable to extinguish it until after an hour's hard work.

Fire extinguishers were used, recharged and again emptied in the work. A gurden hose was also used to drown the smouldering flame. A hole was cut in the upper hallway for this purpose.

Chief Higham directed the work in a cool, masterly way, and what might have been a disastrous conflagration was thus avoided. Had the fire occurred at night in this particular place the result may be imagined.

Saturday Afternoon's Wind Storm.

The wind storm which passed over This city shortly after 4 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, increased in violence as it swept to the eastward. In New York and Brooklyn the dust-laden gale did considerable duage, many trees having been uprooted, loose articles carried away, windows blown in, etc. Lightning also struck in a number of places. The spire of Dr. Parkburt's church was badly damaged. In its passage across New Jersey the storm caused much destruction.

-Successful Children's Entertainment.

'he "Cinderella" entertainment in J. | E. Gibbs' barn, Saturday afternoon, was -attended by a hundred people and netted

$2. The children did remarkably well. The children who took part were Myrta Gibbs, Nellie Shorter, Ida Shorter, Lillian Samuels, Nettie Jordan, Ethel Stern, Pauline Stern, Hannah Lipfeld, Ella Case.

Why Rector Evans Had an Attack of Meart Pailure.

Rector Evans, of Grace Church, conducted the service in St. James' Church. Goshen, Sunday morning. After the offertory he nearly collapsed, the sight of a hundred dollar bill on one of the plates having given him heart failure. The good rector isn't used to seeing auch sights.

AIDED BY MRS. PINKHAM.

Mrs. W. E. PAXTON, Youngtown, North Dakota, writes about her struggle to regain health after the birth of her little girl:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-It is with pleasure that I add my testimong to your list, hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of your valuable medicine.

"After the birth of my little girl, three years ago, my health was very poor. I had leucorrhoea badly, and a terrible bearing-down pain which gradually grew worse, until I could do no work. Also had headache nearly all the time, and dizzy feelings. Menstructions were very profuse, appearing every two weeks.

but it seemed to do no good. I was becoming alarmed over my condition. when I read your advertisement in a paper. I sent at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking two-thirds of the bottle I felt so much better that I send for two more. After using three bottles I felt as strong and well as any Stronger and Better.

"Our little daughter was sick and was very thin in flesh. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and it soon made her strong and better. My husband was suffering from a disordered stomach but after taking a few bottles of Hood's Sarsapariila he was relieved." Mrs. M. Man-GELS, 69 Steuben street. Brooklyn, N. Y.

peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it, is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give to those who call for it, a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The arge bottles are 25 and 50c. We cortainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

DO IT FOR YOURSELF.

healthy. The way to do is to take a like substance—at the bottom after stand sign of disease is a desire to urinate often, If urine stains linen, there is no doubt that the kidneys are affected.

Any and all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and of the urinary passages and constipation of the bowels are cured by Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. There is no question about its being the best and sarest medicine in the world for such troubles. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine, and people, poung or old, who take it are not compelled to get up a number of times during the night. For putting au end to that scalding pain experienced in passing urine, nothing is so good as Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer; is pleasant to taste, and does not seem to be medicine at all. Diseases of the kidneys and bladder often require the use of instruments to push back the sandy matter so the urine can be voided. In such cases Favorite Remedy should be taken without further delay or the disease may prove fatal. It is sold for one dollar a bottle at all drug stores. It is well worth many times its price.

Samples Free.

If you wish to test Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy before buying it, send your full post office address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondont, N. Y., and mention this paper. We will then mail you a sample bottle free, as well as circulars giving full directions for its use. The Wayne-Grange Base Ball League.

The Union notes that a base ball league is being formed, which already includes the Honesdale, Port Jervis, Goshen and Chester clubs. Walden is expected to join in a few days. A trophy will be given the winner, and an interesting series of games is expected.

Daniel Kiernan, of Goshen, has been instrumental in getting up this league. Middletown has been asked to put a team in the league and may do so.

Seriously Ill at Tampa.

Word has reached Port Jervis that John Van Loan, one of the volunteers from that place, is seriously illat Tampa. He is in the hospital there and no one is permitted to see him.

THE ARMY EYE.

It is estimated that twenty per cent of the feently rejected army volunteers were refused because of defective vision. This condition is alarming to those who do not understand eyes and eye defects. To us it simply means NEGLECT—first of the perents; later of the young men themselves. Proper and timely use of glasses would have restored many of the eves to normal sight. EXAMINATION FREE. Glasses to fit any eye Repairing promptly done.
